AN ALL BREED PUBLIC INVITATION
From The Portuguese Water Dog Club of Greater Chicagoland
Please join us for a Seminar, Dinner and Silent Auction.

WHAT: Main Topic: Cesarean Section in Canine; Secondary Topic: Advances in Laparoscopic Surgery for Canines.

WHO: Dr. Maryanne Sheller, DVM, Vale Park Animal Hospital, Valparaiso Indiana.

Doctor Mary Ann Sheller, DVM, graduated in 1984 from Purdue University. She began doing reproduction work at the insistence of a couple of clients back in the late 80s, then got very interested and took special training to learn to freeze semen around 1993. She is a member of the Society for Theriogenology, which is dedicated to the reproductive area of veterinary medicine and offers a lot of continuing education specifically for that special area. Most recently, she attended a course to learn laparoscopic spay and gastropexy surgery. She also recently became a pilot, flying a Cessna 172.

WHEN: Saturday, February 26, 2011

6:00 p.m. Cash Bar

7:00 p.m. Dinner

8:00 p.m. Dr. Sheller's Presentation (Cash bar reopens until 10 p.m.)

WHERE: Ramada Inn, 4700 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, IL (Ramada is 5 minutes from McCormick Place south on Lake Shore Drive).
